

Argus Advisory – March 1, 2017 (term 9-week 2)

Argus' Open House/Advisory Night

Tonight, March 1st, is our school's open house/advisory night. Students attending, with a parent/guardian, will earn ½ an elective credit! Please join us in the multipurpose room at 6:00 pm.

Cap & Gown Orders

The deadline to order a graduation cap & gown passed. If you are a potential graduate and want to participate in the ceremony, but did NOT order a cap & gown, see Trina in the school office.

Modesto Jr. College – Upcoming Core Step Saturday - March 4th

Core Step Saturdays are for incoming students to complete orientation and/or assessment testing. Students need to apply for admission: www.mjc.edu and have a "w" number prior to attending a Core Step Saturday. See Mrs. Aguiar if you need assistance.

FAFSA/Dream Act

Graduates/potential graduates, who plan to continue their education after high school, are encouraged to apply for "free" money (financial aid) to use for further educational expenses. The priority deadline is March 2, 2017. File online at the following websites:

www.fafsa.gov (for students with a social security number) www.dream.csac.ca.gov (for students without a social security number)

End of Term 9

Term 9 ends Thursday, March 9th. If a student has completed a subject area, and needs a schedule change, they need to inform their advisory teacher by Wednesday, March 8th.

Ceres Educational Foundation Raffle – (March 6 – March 24)

Students have the opportunity to sell raffle tickets benefiting the Ceres Educational Foundation. Foundation proceeds help fund school activities and student scholarships. Students, who sell tickets, will earn elective credits in community service. For every 4 tickets sold a student earns ½ an elective credit. Students can earn up to 4 elective credits. Raffle tickets can be checked out from the school office starting Monday, March 6th.

AED (night school) Absence Notice

Students enrolled in an AED class, and have missed hours, will receive an absence notice in today's advisory.

Dress Code Reminder

Clothing that advocates, advertises or symbolizes any type of alcohol, drugs, tobacco or acts which are illegal, violent, obscene or hazardous to one's health is not allowed to be wore or displayed at school.
